Noon-Day Meeting.

The noon-day business men's meeting will be held to-day at Tomlinson Hall. These meetings have, since their beginning, been a grand success. Some of the best and brightest speakers have been present, and made short speeches, in which they condensed and gave the cream of their more extensive efforts elsewhere. The glee clubs have furnished the jolliest of music and every man that has attended these meetings has gone away feeling the better for it. To day's meeting will be the last, and it is desired

There will be a number of good speakers and good music. Republicans cannot expect to do very much business for the next two or three days, anyhow, and let every business man and

INDIANA'S INTEREST IN THE ELECTION.

Indianians have a special and personal reason for desiring the election of Gen. Benjamin Harrison. The success of the Republican ticket means the continuation of the industrial policy which has brought such prosperity to the country; it means an immediate improvement of business; it means reforms in the various departments of the government; it means many benefits to the community at large. In Indiana it means more. Personsonally, every resident of the State, regardless of politics, should and would feel proud to see a fellow-citizen of the character and integrity of General Harrison chosen by the people of the United States to occupy the highest office in the land. The selection of one of its citizens for this position is an honor to the State, which no one who is proud of his State should permit to be lost by any remissness on his own part.

But there is more than this sentimental reason for desiring his success. There is a selfish consideration involved. Evknows that the State immensely benefited by been the nomination and succeeding campaign The attention of the entire country has been directed here; all classes of business men, capitalists, manufacturers, artisans and others, have visited the State and become acquainted with its advantages and possibilities of development. Newspaper correspondents from every city in the country have traversed the State from end to end, and have written up its points of attraction for their various publications. Within four months Indiana has better known than would have been the case in ten years of the ordinary course of travel and system of advertisement. If Harrison is elected this State will remain a center of interest. The home of a President is a place always kept prominently before the people. Indiana's natural advantages, Indiana's industries, Indiana's mineral and agricultural wealth, Indiana's educational institutions will be constantly referred to in one way or another, and advertisement of this sort is quite as profitable to a State as to an individual. Every resident of Indiana who desires to further his own interests and those of his State should vote to-morrow for General Harrison.

THE absurd Democratic committee assumes to offer a reward of five thousand dollars for the arrest of Colonel Dudley. Why don't they arjest him! It wouldn't cost five dollars. The New York Times says:

"United States District Attorney Walker said resterday concerning Colonel Dudley's letter: If anybody can furnish a sufficient affidavit connecting Colonel Dudley with the authorship of the letter, it will be my duty to prosecute

Where are all the brave Democrats? Why don't somebody make the affidavit that Attorney Walker wants, and start the prosecution? The whole thing is a ridiculous piece of bluster.

WE feel that New York and Indiana are sure for Harrison; but let us make assurance doubly sure by unremitting work. By that sign we

DOUBLE-BALLOT VOTERS SPOTTED. Through detectives and those who have formerly been Democrats, agents of the Fair Election League have secured the names of persons selected and instructed to cast double ballots in precincts in Hancock, Putnam, Allen, Spencer, LaPorte and Cass counties. These persons will first be requested to put rubber bands around their ballots when presenting them to the inspectors to go into the box, and if they refuse they will be challenged openly, on the ground that they are illegal ballots because they are double. If the inspectors decline to recognize this ground of challenge and to refuse these ballots until their legality be determined, then they are to be put under arrest, as well as the doubleballot voter, and the proof of the deliberate bargain to cast them be made palpable. In some of these precincts it will be brought home to the inspectors themselves that they are deliberately in the conspiracy with the double-ballot voters to carry out this villainy. If these deliberate plans are carried out by these rascals, there will be several men in jail before noon on Tuesday. In view of these facts, and others in the same line the League expects to have from other counties on Monday, it is recommended by the League that rubber bands be had at the polls in every precinct in the State, and that voters generally be requested to use them on their ballots, and that "suspects," at least, be asked to use them, refusal in such cases being ground for scrutiny. This is recommended especially in view of the fact that Mr. Jewett at first, as well as Mr. Huston, chairmen of both the State committees, agreed to recommend the use of the bands on all bailots, though afterward Mr. Jewett declined to agree to it. And furthermore, especially as these subsequent discover-'es have been made. Arrangements are being made in this city to request all voters themselves to put rubber bands on their ballots before handing them to inspectors.

ALL persons who desire "stickers" or "pasters" for the national or State ticket can get them at Room 2, New Denison House.

THE closing noon rally to-day at Tomliusen Hall should be a "corker."

THE NEW YORK DEMONSTRATION. The immense demonstration in New York on Saturday proves beyond doubt that business sympathies are overwhelmingly with the Republican party. All classes of business men took part in the parade, and every commercial interest of the country was there represented. These thousands of manufacturers, merchants, wholesale dealers from every trade, railway men, insurance men, lawyers, brokers and others were animated by the belief that individual and public prosperity depends upon the success of the ticket which embodies Republican principles. They were moved to this demonstration by cool, unbiased judgment, and not by personal and partisan enthusiasm. They support Harrison and Morton not for sentimental reasons, but because Harrison and Morton represent the principle of protection, under which American industries can alone flourish. The opinion of these 60,000 hard-headed. practical, experienced business men is a tremendous argument against the tariff-reformers, and shows the weakness of fine-spun free-trade theories as nothing else could do.

THE noon meeting to-day will be at Tomlinson

CHANDLER FOR CONGRESS.

Every manufacturer and every wageworker in this city and congressional district should vote for Thomas E. Chandler, for Congress.

His competitor, Hon. W. D. Bynum, is an extreme free-trader, and advocates a policy which, if carried out, would utterly ruin our manufacturing industries. Mr. Bynum thinks this is statesmanship because it is advocated by British statesmen. This district cannot afford to be represented in Congress by a man whose political stock in trade is opposition to American industries.

Mr. Chandler is a self-made man, a real workingman, and a product of the American protective system. It would be a fine stroke of political retribution to put him in the place of a rabid free-trader.

A DESPERATE FIGHT.

Why Should Republicans Vote for James L. Mitchell for Prosecutor? To the Editor of the Independent: It does seem strange that men cannot be fair and honest in politics. James L. Mitchell's friends are making a cowardly, malicious and desperate fight to beat Harrison T. Ticher, the Republican candidate for presecutor. Mitchell's friends are telling all kinds of malicious lies about Tincher. In one locality they tell one kind of a lie that will impress the people there, and in another locality, where the people are of a different character, they tell another lie, just as malicious as the one told in the other locality. but diametrically opposed to the other. Mitchell is awere of these facts, and still they go on. Mr. Mitchell, we think, recognizes that he is pushing a lost cause, and the only hope that he has is to blast the fair name and character of

Mr. Tincher, and thereby detract the attention of the public from his own doings. To begin with, Mitchell's record as a proseentor has been a failure in comparison w young men who preceded him in that office. We are reliably informed that Mr. Mitchell has lost more cases that he has tried in a little less time than two years, than John B. Elam, William T. Brown and W. N. Harding, who preceded him, did in six years. With this record can any fairminded man say that Mitchell has made a success as a prosecutor! The police complain, and say that in many cases where the Mayor binds the parties over to the grand jury, they, the police, nor any of the witnesses are ever called before the grand jury to tell what they know, but that cases are disposed of and no indictments are returned. One instance of the kind is Maria Allen's case. Maria Allen was arrested on the fair grounds during the fair for stealing a pocket-book. She confessed her crime when she had her preliminary examination before the Mayor, and the Mayor says that there can be no doubt about her guilt; in fact, he says, it is as plain a case as ever came before him. He, the Mayor, bound her over to the grand jury. One grand jury has come and gone since, notwithstanding that the names of all the witnesses are written on the back of the affidavit, which is in the hands of Mitchell, not one of these witnesses were called before the grand jary; and the singular fact shout this whole affair is, that the son-in-law of Maria Allen, who lives with her and who is a Republican, is doing all he can in his might for Mitchell's reelection, the Democratic candidate. The public, from these facts, can draw its own conclusions. What does it mean! The police complain and say that Mitchell's deputy, in the Mayor's court, prepares many affidavits which are, on mo ion, squashed in the Criminal Court, and ha the witnesses are never called before the grand jury, and that is the last of cases. With these facts staring us in the face can the lawabiding people afford to have James L. Mitchell re-elected! We are informed that a certain member of the grand jury approached a promi-nent Republican, whose brother is under indictment for a petty misdemeanor, and told him that if he and his brother would turn in and do all they could to help Mitchell be elected, that he would have Mitcheil dismiss the case against his brother, and that he knew that he could have it done; and when asked if Mitchell would do it, he said. "I know what I am talking about." Great heavens! What won't Mitchell and his friends do to have him re-elected! The News, with a reckless regard for the good character and name of Mitchell's opponent, puts forward insinuations and inpuendoes that are absolutely false, and all of the good people of this community, who know Mr.

Tincher, know them to be false. Mr. Tincher was raised on a farm in Hendricks county, and worked for years at a small pittance to save up enough money to come here and study law. The lawyers here know how well he has succeeded in his chosen profession. He is recognized as one of the best young lawyers at the Indianapolis bar, by all lawyers, as a better lawyer by far than James L. Mitchell. Mr. Tincher is a true Republican, and has invested everything he has on earth in this campaign to assist in electing the Republican ticket. Mr. Mitchell has hundreds of dollars, (probably the same money he wrung from these fallen women.) invested, given to the Democratic committee to detent our own illustrious citizen, General Harrison, and the entire Republican ticket. With these records of the two men before us, how can any man, with a drop of Republican blood in his veins, think of voting for Mitchell.

ONE WHO LIKES TO SEE FAIR PLAY.

EVIDENCE OF THEIR TRADE

Sullivan and Mitchell Seek Support from the Third Party in Hendricks.

How the Wily Democrats and Their Annex Have Planned to Deceive Voters --- Other Matters from the Current of Politics.

There is now positive evidence that the third party men and Democrata in Hendricks county have formed a coalition. By the agreement entered into the third-party people are to support Thomas L. Sullivan and James L. Mitchell Democratic nominees for judge and prosecutor, respectively, and the Democrats in turn are to vote for David Hadley, the Prohibition nominee for Representative. The evidence of the combination is plain. On the 7th of last month the Democrats held their county convention and nominated a full ticket, including Dr. J. H. Brill, of Pittsboro, for Representative. As evidence that Dr. Brill was nominated, the following is quoted from the Hendricks County Gazette the Democratic organ, printed on the Saturday after the convention:

Dr. J. H. Brill, the candidate for Representative s one of the best known citizens of Hendricks county. Besides being in the active practice of medi-cine at Pittsboro, he is extensively engaged in farming and stock-raising, his herd of Hereford cattle being one of the finest in central Indiana.

In the same issue of the paper is the following card from Dr. Brill declining to accept the nom-

PITTSBORO, Ind. Oct. 29, 1888.

Editor Gazette-Please say to the Democratic veters of Hendricks county, that I cannot accept the nomina-tion for Representative. J. H. BRILL. Then in the same issue of the paper is printed what purports to be a correct copy of the Democratic ticket. In publishing it the editor says: The following is a correct copy of the Democratic ticket; when you cast your ballot Tuesday scan it closely and see that it corresponds exactly with

Instead of Dr. Brill's name appearing on the ticket or the office left vacant, the name of David Hadley, the Prohibition candidate, appears. The following is a section of the ticket as the Gazette prints it:

For Representative, DAVID HADLEY. For Judge, 19th Judicial Circuit, THOMAS L. SULLIVAN. For Prosecutor, 19th Judicial Circuit, JAMES L. MITCHELL.

Now, as conclusive evidence of the bargain the names of Sullivan and Mitchell appear in the third-party ticket. There is in the possession of the Journal one of the tickets issued by the third party, and there is evidence to prove that it was printed in the Gazette office last Saturday. It contains the names of all the national, State, district and county third-party candidates, with the exception of those for circuit judge and prosecutor. Here is a section of it, the same as the Democratic ticket, as follows: For Judge, 19th Judicial Circuit,

THOMAS L. SULLIVAN. For Prosecuting Attorney, 19th Judicial Circuit, JAMES L. MITCHELL. For Representative. DAVID HADLEY.

With this evidence there ought no longer e any question about the third party and Democrats working hand-in-hand. Sul-livan and Judge A. C. Ayres attended the Democratic convention in Hendricks county, and would have had David Hadley the Prohibition nominee for Representative openly put on their ticket, but for the fact they feared such action might cost them some votes in this county. When Brill was nominated it was the understanding that he should withdraw in order that the coalition might be made.

Major Mitchell a Thorough Partisan. Major Mitchell's friends are seeking to injure H. T. Tincher, his Republican opponent for prosecutor, by attacking his personal character. All sorts of malicious stories have been put in circulation, but they have no effect upon people who know Mr. Tincher. In his canvass Mr. Mitchell is citing his official record as a reason why he should be re-elected. He has lost more cases, it is stated, in two years than Messra, Elam, Brown and Harding did in six years, The police have steadily complained of Mr. Mitchell because in many cases where the Mayor binds the offenders over to the grand jury, the police and the witnesses are never called before the grand jury to testify. Quite a number of cases of this kind can be cited. During the State fair Maria Allen was arrested at the fair grounds for stealing a pocket-book. In the preliminary examination before the Mayor the woman confessed her crime, and she was bound over to the grand jury. The grand jury came and went and nothing was done in the case, although the names of all the witnesses were written on the back of the affidavit. The sequel to the case is that the son-inlaw of Mrs. Allen is doing all he can to have Mitchell re-elected. It is also stated that a certain member of the Democratic grand jury approached a Republican whose brother is under indictment for a misdemeanor, and told him that if he and his brother would assist in the election of Mitchell, he would see to it that the indictment was dropped. Mr. Tincher is recognized as a better lawyer than Major Mitchell. He was raised on a farm in Hendricks county, and by his own efforts saved enough money to come to Indianapolis and read law. He is a Republican through and through, and above all things desires the election of General Harrison and the entire Republican ticket. On the other hand Mr. Mitchell has contributed liberally to the fund with which it is hoped to defeat Gen. Harrison and the whole Republican ticket. As a gentleman remarked yesterday: "Under these of voting for Mitchell."

The Poor-House Scheme. Thomas McCann has sworn to an affidavit before Horace Speed, a notary public, that he is and has been an inmate of the Marion County poor-house for the past six years, and that John Van Wick is also an inmate; that for about two months past men have been coming to and remaining at the poorhouse, who are not entitled to vote; that he and Van Wick have been making and keeping a poll of them; that at the last election for township trastes there were six men kept at the poor-house who came there a few days before the election and went from there to the polls and voted and did not return; that said six men were all young and abled-bodied men; that the superintendent has told some of the men who have recently come into said poor-house, that their names are still upon the books, though they have not been in said poor-house since last spring. That Van Wick was locked up on Friday in one of the wards for the insane, charged with being drunk, but affiant believes it was because he has been keeping said poll; that affiant believes that not over half of the inmates of said poor-house are entitled to vote; that the insane were voted at he spring election; that the inmates were carried to the polls at that election in wagons, and folded tickets were given to them, but what the tickets were the men could not see: that Superintendent Williams took the tickets from the men in the wagons and handed them to the man at the poll-box, and that said Smith Williams was then and still is the superintendent at said poor-house. Within the past two weeks another man has been upon the inside of the poor-house, and was there several days, during which he took an accurate poll of the inmates who are voters. There are thirty-five upon the first, thirty-eight uyon the second and fifteen upon the third floor and eight of the help. making a total of ninety-six voters. Three of the ninety-six, viz., John Raymond, John Kesting and Waiter Ryan, are not entitled to a vote. There are eight negroes in the house, three of whom are Republicans, and the scheme is to take the votes of the men from the wagon as was done last spring.

Will Use Rubber Bands. The Republicans of the Tweifth ward had a conference yesterday and decided to use rubber bands on all Republican ballots cast in the ward to-morrow. Daniel Burton, the Democratic inspector, was waited upon and asked to use his influence to have all the Democrats pursue the same plan, but he flatly refused to agree to join in the agreement. Many of the Democrats n the ward are willing to use the bands, and those who will not will be looked upon with suspicion. The Thirteenth-ward Republicans will also use the bands.

Has Been a Democrat for Years. The Democrats have, for several weeks, been making a vain search all over the State for Republicans who would vote for Cleveland. The last story they published was that Capt. James M. Boone, of Hamilton county, had declared for | permanently cures catarrh.

Warn our people to get their tickets from trusted Republicans only. Guard against frauds and violations of law and Indiana will be ours."

It is proposed by the Democrats to use this ink in Fowler and Fort Wayne. But their efforts at frauds are not confined to Indiana, for there came last night from Ohio and Illinois many telegrams, of which the following are ex-WAUSEON, O., Nov. 5.

Chairman Taggart's office was open all day. and he and several others were in a private room making selections of men to fill the places, but all inquiries as to who would be appointed were met with the answer that the committee was not through with its work, and therefore no information would be given out, is no doubt the purpose keep the names from the public until the last moment, so as to avoid any protests against the force until it would be to late to displace objec-

Deputies have already been appointed for several counties, but the lists, like that of Marion county, are held back. The commissioners and judges, however, have gone out, and with them instructions signed by Marshal Hawkins, in which he tells the deputies that their duty is to preserve order at the polls, and that they are required to prevent fraudulent voting and to arrest any person for attempting by force, threats, intimidation or bribery to prevent any qualified voter from exercising the right of suffrage. The marshal calls especial attention to this offense and directs the prompt arrest of any person who gives or offers to give any money or other consideration to any voter to influence his vote. The instructions then continue: "You will errest any person for interfering with the United States supervisors of election, or with the general or special deputy United States marshals, to hinder them in the discharge of their duties, whether by virtual or any pretended authority, or process of the State, or city, or town, at which you are stationed, or by assault by any person, or by corrupt solicitation by any person. Your especial attention is called to the extracts of the United States laws. which I inclose to you. For any of the offenses recited you are required to arrest without warrant if the offense is committed in your presence and view. If it becomes necessary for you to make an arrest, you will carry the prisoner before a United States Court commissioner, if there is one in your county, who will issue the necessary papers on which to have a trial, or issue to you a temporary commitment, which will authorize you to place the prisoner in jail until the day set for trial. In the event there is no United States commissioner in your county, you will place the prisoner in the custody of some discreet person and telegraph me the offense committed, the name of the prisoner and the names of the witnesses, and I will wire you full instructions. In any event you must resume your place at the polls as speedily as possible. Your actions in everything must be discreet and gentlemanly. Do not allow yourself to become excited, but keep cool, and do your duty manfully." As there are indications that Coy, from his cell in the northern penitentiary, has been, in a great measure, directing the Marion county campaign for the Democracy, it is fair to pre-sume that the forthcoming deputies Chairman

These gentlemen will have a bard time to get in their votes in the city of Indianapolis.

Further Outrages Proposed. It was appounced late last night from the United States marshal's office that a warrant had been assued for the arrest of Col. W. W. Dudley. An affidavit charging him with seeking to buy votes was sworn out by John A. Lang, and the warrant for his arrest was issued by Commissioner Nathan Morris, who a few hours previously had bound Dr. Carnes over to the grand jury in the hopes of making political capital. The affidavit is based on the forged circular letter published in the Demperatic papers last week. The warrant was placed in the hands of a deputy marshal, with instructions to serve it on Colonel Dudley when be comes to Indiana. In accordance with the plot a warrant was also issued for the arrest of John Marts, of Zionsville, charging him with at-

Why Is He Not Arrested? Saturday afternoon a warrant was placed in United States Marshal Hawkins's hands for the arrest of George Kissler, a saloon-keeper of West Washington street, for harboring illegal voters. Kissler rode a mule in the Democratic perade Saturday night, in plain sight of everybody, and was at his saloon doing business all day yesterday, and up to a late hour last night no attempt had been made to arrest him.

A Special Officer Stabbed. Special Officer Isgrigg was badly cut in the face and back last night while removing a disorderly crowd from in front of the Blackfordstreet M. E. Church. The wound in his back is said to be severe, but not serious. Dr. Beck attended the officer. He was taken in a carriage to his home in Haughville. John Lindsey was arrested as one of the disturbers.

Advice to Mothers: Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup should always e used when children are cutting teeth. It releves the little sufferer at once; it produes natural, quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhosa, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty Choking Catarrh.

Have you awakened from a disturbed sleep with all the horrible sensations of an assassin clutching your throat and pressing the life-breath from your tightened chest? Have you noticed the languor and debility that succeed the effort to clear your throat and head of this catarrhal matter? What a depressing influence it exerts upon the mind, clouding the memory and filling the head with pains and strange noises! How difficult it is to rid the nasal passages, throat and lungs of this poisonous mucus all can testify who are afflicted with catarrh. How difficult to protect the system against its further progress towards the lungs, liver and kidneys, all physicians will admit. It is a terrible disease, and cries out for relief and cura.
